- 25X1 1. The red flag was raised over the Chinese embassy in Seoul after the North Korean invasion. Chinese Communist underground organizations came to the fore and are operating from the embassy in Seoul, with the aim of purging Chinese who support CHIANG Kai-shek. Many Seoul Chinese are offering the plea that they are really Communists but were forced by the South Korean government to register as Nationalists in order to retain their papers.
- 25X1 2. Although Seoul residents believe there are Chinese Communist soldiers in the city, they find it difficult to distinguish them from North Korean troops, since the Chinese are wearing People's Army uniforms.
3. Various persons in Seoul identified the troops moving into the city in early July as part of the Chinese Communist Army. ☐
